WE will supply substitutes promptly. Principals should call at once, before prices advance further.

Notice to County Subscribers.

In a short time we shall adopt a new system of mailing the Daily Democrat to the county. The name of each subscriber will be printed, and the time for which payment is made will be marked on the printed slip. Thus each subscriber will, as often as he receives the paper, see the condition of his account, the time for which he has paid being printed on the slip containing the address. This constant notification will remind all subscribers of the condition of their accounts, and we trust they will, in all cases, remit in time to prevent their names from being stricken from the list. No paper will be continued beyond the date paid for.

There are a number of our patrons in arrears. To all such we shall forward a statement of their accounts, and trust they will remit forthwith, as under the new system of mailing no paper will be forwarded to any one in arrears. We trust our friends will heed this notice and promptly forward their subscriptions.

COUNTY BOUNTY.—The County Court met yesterday morning and made an order accepting the act of the Legislature authorizing them to issue bonds for one hundred thousand dollars to relieve the people of the county, outside the city, from the draft. Judge Monroe, George P. Doern and J. G. Wilson, County Attorney, were appointed commissioners to sell the bonds, and to procure the lithography of them.

A tax of five per cent. on one hundred dollars' worth of real estate in the county and five dollars per capita tax on each white male resident of the county liable to draft, between the ages of twenty and forty-five years, was levied and ordered to be collected by the sheriff, but a committee for each precinct, and said Monroe, Doern and Wilson, to receive subscriptions, and no person liable to draft shall receive the benefit of the draft funds unless he subscribes and pays twenty dollars; then, if drafted, he gets three hundred dollars from the bounty fund. The county committees are to report every Saturday to the committee of three their collections.

To-morrow we will publish the proceedings in full.

DISGRACEFUL.—We call the attention of the city police to a practice which is fast becoming a nuisance and disgrace to our city. It is that of negro girls and women, free and slave, of a lewd character, who promenade the streets day and night, using the most disgraceful language and making themselves ridiculous by their bad conduct. We saw and heard an instance of this kind on First street, yesterday, where two copper-colored wenches cursed and blackguardized each other in the most disgraceful manner. Such conduct as this is a disgrace and should be stopped.

The recent order of Gen. Palmer, ordering all rebel deserters to report themselves and register their names, is having its desired effect. Quite a number of that class arrived in the city yesterday, and readily complied with the request of the order. All who fail to comply, if captured, will be treated as guerrillas.

MERCHANT TAILORS.—Messrs. Higgin & Voss, merchant tailors and clothiers, have opened a first-class gent's furnishing store on the corner of Fifth and Market streets. They make and keep on hand a splendid stock of gentlemen's clothing and underwear. Pay them a visit.

NEW RECRUITS.—New recruits are arriving here in large numbers. Yesterday one hundred and seventy-five arrived from Springfield, one hundred and forty from Fort Smith, one hundred and ninety from Jackson, Michigan, and thirty-nine from Harrisburg, Penn.

Two or three soldiers were arrested yesterday for peddling to soldiers.

REBEL DESERTERS.—The following rebel deserters reported themselves and registered their names at the Provost Marshal's office yesterday, in compliance with the late order issued by Gen. Palmer:

Samuel Philpot, 1st Miss cav.
Jos. Phillips, 1st Miss cav.
John J. Weeks, 2d Miss cav.
Benj. W. Weeks, 1st Miss cav.
Andrew J. Spangler, 10th Miss cav.

H. P. Thatchell, 1st Miss cav.
J. W. Daibney, Page's co., 1st Miss cav.
Jas. McMillan, 1st Miss cav.
John C. Thompson, 5th Miss cav.
James P. Hickman, 2d Miss cav.
Froderick Ludwig, sergt., 12th Miss cav.
Wm. F. Spangler, 10th Miss cav.
Philip S. Taggart, 1st Miss cav.

FEDERAL DESERTERS.—Anast. R. Smith, private company A, Third Kentucky cavalry, was tried by court-martial at Bowling Green, Ky., in November, 1863, on the charge of desertion, found guilty and sentenced to be shot to death with musketry. His sentence was commuted to dishonorable discharge from the service and confinement during the war at the Dry Tortugas.

Wesley Porter, private company G, first battalion Thirtieth U. S. infantry, was tried by court-martial at Nashville, in April, 1864, on the charge of desertion. He was found guilty and sentenced to be shot to death with musketry, which sentence was commuted by the President to imprisonment at hard labor during the war. The State Penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio, is designated as the place of imprisonment.

The above prisoners arrived here yesterday before last and were forwarded yesterday to their destination.

BILL DAVIDSON NOT KILLED.—We are informed that Bill Davidson, the guerrilla, was not badly wounded, and not a prisoner. He and his gang took over two Federal soldiers, who immediately jumped into the bushes and fired upon Davidson as soon as they came up. The guerrilla immediately fled with him and left him at his cousin's residence. The guerrilla took the guerrillas to Harrodsburg, where they were whipped and driven back the way they came. On the way back they stopped at the house where Davidson was lying, and he requested them to carry him away, saying the Federal would kill him if they caught him. The guerrillas took Davidson away with them.

UNITED STATES COURT.—The only cases disposed of in the United States Court yesterday were those of the United States against J. H. Wright & Co. and L. Jenckle, for selling perfume without putting the necessary stamps on the bottles. The case of J. W. Jordan & Co., indicted for shipping goods to Tennessee without a permit from the Treasury Department, the argument was heard and the case submitted to the grand jury, after being in session over two weeks, finished their labor yesterday and were discharged. They returned indictments against twenty-seven persons for various offenses. The court meets again to-day at 10 o'clock this morning.

COURT MARTIAL.—We understand that a general court martial and military commission, for the trial of persons now in arrest in this department, will be put in operation in this city as soon as practicable. We are glad to learn that Gen. Col. Will. H. Coyle has been appointed Acting Judge Advocate of the Department of Kentucky. He has established his office in this city, on Chestnut street, next door to Gen. Ewing's headquarters, between Second and Third streets.

ANOTHER FREIGHT TRAIN BURNED.—We learn that about 150 guerrillas or Confederate soldiers made a raid from Franklin, Tenn., night before last. A freight train, consisting of 18 loaded cars, bound for Nashville, was captured and burned. We could learn no particulars nor by whom they were commanded. The regular train from Nashville was detained last night by the wreck on the track.

We are informed that Mr. Joseph B. Read, who has held the office of Tobacco Inspector for some past time, has been re-appointed by the Governor. Mr. Read has, so far as we know, given entire satisfaction, and we are glad to learn that the Governor retains him in this position.

SUBSTITUTE BROKER ARRESTED.—Yesterday a man, named Henry Gunther, was arrested on the charge of being a spy and selling soldiers as sub-utes. It is said he sold several soldiers in St. Louis as substitutes at $1,000 each. A reward was offered for his arrest.

ARRESTS.—The number of cases presented before the Provost Marshal during the month of February was as follows: 150 soldiers, 70 rebel soldiers, 91 citizens from various points and 6 females, who were sent to the military prison, making a total of 326.

STEALING HORSES.—The Home Guards arrested two soldiers at Jeffersontown, yesterday, on the charge of stealing horses. Their names are G. B. Liggett and Wm. M. Williams, company G, Twelfth Ohio cavalry.

CAVALRY.—A large body of cavalry passed down Fourth street, yesterday afternoon, on their way to—well, they belong to Gen. Stoneman's command, and are en route for Dixie.

WHISKY.—Several men and women were arrested yesterday for selling whisky to soldiers. The men were put in the guardhouse and the women in the female military prison.

Amusements.

Woods' THEATER.—Another large and fashion able audience greeted Miss Maggie Mitchell, and to far she has played the most successful engagement in this city the present season. In the character of Fanchon the Cricket, she played to great advantage that we have ever seen her before. In the shadow dance she is most excellent, and, in fact, may state that in the entire character she performed a statement in which all who have seen her will bear us out. The piece will be repeated to-night.

Louisville THEATER.—The Warren Combination continue to meet with good success, but not so great as their merits deserve. To-night they appear in favorite pieces, when we look for a crowded house.

SKIFF & GAYLORD'S MINSTRELS.—Masonic Temple promises to be a popular and attractive place of amusement for a few nights. We are to have a first-class corps of delineators of the negro character—a number one troupe of minstrels, who open to-night with a superb bill. Misses Skiff & Gaylord, it is said, are the one of the best troupe now traveling; and, judging from the tone of the press elsewhere, we may expect a rich musical feast, and an entertainment worthy of their good name. Let all who are fond of negro minstrelsy be on hand to-night.

Notice.

SECOND FLOOR.—We are to have a first-class corps of delineators of the negro character—a number one troupe of minstrels, who open to-night with a superb bill. Let all who are fond of negro minstrelsy be on hand to-night.
